

2019 NFL PICK 'EM POOL RULES OF PLAY

1. Each entrant must pay the registration fee ($40). Prizes won prior to payment of the registration fee will be withheld until registration fee is received. Any unclaimed prize will be added to the first place cumulative prize at the end of the regular season.
2. Entrants will register and make weekly prediction through the 'Official Pool Website': <http://www.officepools.com/invite/pickem/m/Y3B9LT8>. Registration cut-off is September 19, 2019 at 23:59.
3. 'Cut-off Time': All picks must be submitted prior to the start of each game through the Official Pool Website. Manual, phoned in or emailed picks will not be accepted under any circumstance.
4. Entrants will predict the winner for each weekly game during the NFL regular season (September 5, 2019 to December 29, 2019). In addition, entrants will predict the total points scored in the last scheduled game each week (Monday Night Tie Breaker).
5. This is a 'straight up' pick pool (not point spread). Entrants make their predictions based on the actual outcomes of the games. For example, if the entrant predicts that Seattle will beat San Francisco. They are correct as long as Seattle wins the game.
6. Scoring: Entrants will receive 1 point for each correct game prediction. Entrants will receive no points for incorrect picks and games where no pick is selected prior to the selection Cut-Off Time. No points will be awarded for games which end in a tie. Entrants can view results through the Official Pool Website.
7. Monday Night Tie Breaker: Where there is more than 1 entry with the top number of correct game predictions for the week, the winner will be the entrant who is closest to the total number of points scored by both teams in the final game of the week (the latest Monday Night Game). If there is still a tie the weekly prize will be split equally between the winners.
8. Prizes:
 - Weekly Winners: The entrant with the highest number of points at the end of each week will receive a $25 weekly winner prize.
 - Year End (cumulative) Prizes: Each entrant's total points through the regular season will be tracked cumulatively. Prizes will be awarded to the entrants with the top 3 cumulative scores, as follows:
